Up for Sale is the one only known Prototype Cartridge of Castlevania : Legacy of Darkness for the Nintendo 64.

This is truly one-of-a-kind, it's a unique first class collectors Item and its the only one known in the whole World. There are no documented other pieces!

The Cartridge has never been dumped and it works perfectly on my PAL Nintendo 64.

Please note that the Title Screen shows a different Production Year than the Retail PAL Version of Castlevania Legacy of Darkness. (Compare Photo 3+4) That's a proof that the Prototype is NOT final status. (Final would be like Photo 4)

I did not check the Prototype for any more differences to the final / retail version of Legacy of Darkness.

As this Prototype is unique, it is most likely the rarest Castlevania collectible in the whole World.
Dont' miss the chance to aquire this Crown for any Castlevania Collection - chances are extremely high that no other piece will ever show up.
